

Who Plays:

- 72 Massachusetts Corporations
- Eight participants from each company consisting of four, two-player teams

The Format:

- Two-player best-ball, gross or net. Each corporation participant plays one 18-hole round as a member of a two-player team.
- One two-player team from each corporation plays in each of the four events.
- The corporate team's final tally will be based on its two best team gross scores and its remaining two teams' net scores; i.e. all four two-player teams' scores will count.
- Upon completion of the final round at Kernwood Country Club on September 29, the corporate team with the lowest aggregate score will receive the 2002 Massachusetts Corporate Cup at that evening's dinner.
- Each of the four championship rounds is followed by a reception and dinner in the clubhouse.

Corporate Team Entry Fee:

The $4000 fee covers golf, carts, lunch, refreshments, tournament prizes and post-round dinner for all eight team participants.

With your corporation's participation, the 2002 Massachusetts Corporate Golf Championship:

- Boosts your company morale, giving your employees the chance to represent the corporation on a competitive golf level, i.e. the championship golf course of Kernwood Country Club.
- Provides four prime networking opportunities for creating new friendships and partnerships in a corporate golf environment.
- Provides significant corporate name recognition on the championship sites with on-course and championship scoreboard signage, in the Massachusetts Corporate Golf Championship program and in the clubhouse marketing display area.
- Delivers an attractive vehicle for gaining positive media exposure in a non-corporate setting, i.e. a golf championship benefiting a designated Massachusetts charity.

Another way to participate in the 2002 Massachusetts Corporate Golf Championship:

Take part as a Massachusetts Corporate Golf Championship Sponsor.

For $2000, your company:

- Gains valuable marketing exposure to many of the top corporations in the state at all four events.

- Is prominently displayed on course, on the championship scoreboard and in the Massachusetts Corporate Golf Championship Program.
- Attends two of the post-round dinners at Kernwood Country Club.
- Has its company name displayed on Corporate Golf Management's website.
- Is automatically entered in a sponsors-only raffle for a Caribbean cruise for two.

The Charity:

- Corporate Golf Management will make a donation to a designated charity chosen by the winning team of the Massachusetts Corporate Golf Championship.

Corporate Golf Management

Our Mission:

To provide Massachusetts corporations a unique opportunity to participate in a prestigious, competitive golf tournament that benefits not only its corporate identity, but also its employees and a designated Massachusetts charity.

